YOU’VE GOT A FRIEND

Words and Music by CAROLE KING

When you’re down and troubled and you grow need some love and care, and nothin’, nothin’ is goin’ right, north wind begins to blow,

Slowly

close your eyes and think of me and soon I will be keep your head together and call my name out to brighten up even your darkest nights. soon you’ll hear me knockin’ at your door.

You just call out my name and you know wherever I am I’ll come run - I'm going to sit the ninth to see you again.

Winter, spring, summer and fall, all you have to do is call and I'll be there.

You've got a friend.

If the be there, yes, I will. Now ain’t it good to know that you’ve got a friend when peo-ple can be so cold? They’ll hurt you, yes, and des-ert you and take your soul if you let them. Oh, but don’t you let them. You just be there yes I will. You’ve got a friend.
